

shop around

Questions

1. As well as the price, what figures must appear on a new car in a showroom?

ANSWER: Fuel consumption and CO<sub>2</sub> emission figures

2. What rights has the consumer in a private car sale?

ANSWER: A right to title, to get the car as it is described and not to be misled. Do not take the answer 'none'

3. What sort of trader will be a member of the RMIF?

ANSWER: A car trader - Retail Motor Industry Federation

4. As some unscrupulous traders pretend to be private, what steps do the advertisers take to stop them?

ANSWER: A 'T' suffix is required if a phone number is used regularly to sell cars

5. What performance information must appear on new freezers?

ANSWER: Energy consumption figures

6. If a car trader sells a repaired write-off, must he tell the purchaser that it is a repaired write-off?

ANSWER: No, not unless the consumer asks

7. How much of a deposit may a Timeshare representative take at the time of signing the agreement?

ANSWER: None due to the required cooling-off period

8. The British Phonographic Industry represents legitimate trader interests in what field?

ANSWER: Music

