

shop around

Questions

1. Is it a criminal offence to sell fake goods at a market?
2. Is it a criminal offence to buy fake goods at a market?
3. What should you do with a letter offering a big cash prize that asks you to send a small sum to register your name?
4. Where will you almost always see an advertisement for FACT?
5. What does a 't' in a classified advert mean?
6. If a car is clocked, what does that mean?
7. If a trader calls uninvited at your home to sell you double-glazing, what rights does the law provide to protect you from a high-pressure sales patter?
8. What is the agreement giving a consumer the right to spend a set period in a holiday property?

