

shop around

Questions

1. What is the current rate of VAT?
2. What sort of number is vital at an ATM?
3. What is a debtor?
4. What should you do before signing a credit agreement?
5. When do goods become yours in a hire-purchase agreement?
6. Why do shops insist on a cheque card when a consumer pays by cheque?
7. What must appear on every consumer-credit agreement to make it effective?
8. True or false? The APR (Annual Percentage Rate) is the best way to compare credit agreements.

