

shop around

Questions

1. Is it against the law for shops to sell goods after the 'use-by' date?
2. Can a seven year old child make a legal contract?
3. If a shirt is priced at £9.99 when it should have been £19.99, is the shopkeeper legally obliged to sell at the lower price?
4. If you bring back a jumper because you don't really like it, what rights do you have?
5. If you accept a credit note, can a shop put a time limit on when it can be used?
6. Does The Sale of Goods Act apply to food?
7. Does the Sale of Goods Act apply to the sale of a pet goldfish?
8. Can shopkeepers refuse to sell you something if they wish?

